FRIENDS YEARLY MEETING HOUSE — MOUNT PLEASANT, OHIO. The first House of Worship built by the Society of Friends west of the Allegheny Mountains. This sturdy building, constructed in 1814 of hand made brick, served as the center of the Quaker Faith in Eastern Ohio for nearly a century. It is now restored and administered by Ohio Historical Society.

Photo by Floyd Hivnor

Hivnor Card Co., P.O. Box 91, Zanesville, Ohio 43701

PLACE
STAMP
HERE
37444

Post Card